Subject: CFAC-Scheduling Follow-up Call

Mr. Otis:

Thank you for meeting with EPA earlier this week. It was a pleasure to meet Ms. Driscoll as well as to see Mr. Stroiaazo.

I wanted to follow-up with you with respect to scheduling another conversation about legal issues pertaining to the Superfund alternative approach. Unfortunately, I checked Andrea Madigan's availability for February 11th, and she is out of the office that day. I seem to recall that you are on vacation during the week of February 15th. The following week – the week of February 22nd—I am on business travel to Washington, DC. The best day that week is Friday, February 26th when I am back in Denver. Both of our calendars are wide open on February 26th at this point. Alternatively, it is possible for us to have a call on Thursday morning, February 25th before I leave for the airport for my return flight to Denver. If we had a call on February 25th, we are available between 10 and 11a.m. EST. Please let me know if either of those dates works for you.
